EDITOR'S NOTEBOOK

Dear Archie Readers,

Approximately a year ago, I mentioned that our comics were going to be published in Russia. The Russian publisher indicated that many of his readers were eager to correspond with Archie fans in the United States. With that in mind, I asked all those interested in having a Russian pen pal to send letters to Archie Comics so we could forward them to Russia. To date, we've received close to two thousand letters. I've also been receiving follow-up letters. Fans want to know when they can look forward to responses from pen pals in Russia. Some of you were very upset at the delay --- and rightfully so.

Well, unfortunately, the Russian publisher had to stop publishing the Russian language Archie Comics before your pen pal letters could be used. However, we are working on another "pen pal plan" that will eventually enable us to send your letters to Russia. While I can't go into specific details, the outlook is promising. I hope you will accept my deepest apologies. It's obvious you all spent a lot of time writing your letters, preparing artwork and finding special photographs to send to your new pen pals. Rest assured that all of these letters are being kept in a safe place. Once again, my apologies. I will keep you up to date as to what progress is being made.

On a happier note, it's "Summer Vacation Time"! In case you forgot, I thought I'd remind you. Anyway, to start your vacation off right, check out this year's BETTY & VERONICA SUMMER FUN #3. This 48-page Giant Special sizzles when Betty and Veronica go to their favorite beach, only to find out that Cheryl Blossom has bought it. Not only that, but she turned it into a "Private Beach" that is off limits to Riverdale High students. So if it's fun in the sun you want, then SUMMER FUN #3 is for you. This issue goes on sale in June.

Surfboarding

Riding a wave is surfing. People have been surfing since before Columbus set sail for the New World. It all began in Hawaii hundreds of years ago. It's an old sport but the idea is same. You have to paddle out on your board to where the waves build up. When a big wave forms you catch it by paddling in front of it. As soon as it begins to push and lift your board, stand up and try to keep your balance all the way to the beach. If you don't have a board you can bodysurf by riding a wave on your stomach.
